

Class of 1974 50th Reunion

Although there are no official activities on Thursday, September 19th, here are some ideas of places to go and things to do.

Please take pictures to share!!

Send them to aharvey@norwich.edu

In Essex, Jct.

THE ESSEX EXPERIENCE

Adjacent to The Essex Resort and Spa, The Essex Experience is a mall with over twenty independently owned Vermont businesses. including a movie theater, beauty & wellness services, an art gallery, retail shopping excellent beverage & dining choices including a brewing co & distillery, a cider lab, wine bar and market.

11 Maple Street

Two iconic antique stores in the same building: Five Corners Antiques and Mason Brothers Architectural Salvage Warehouse. Do a web search for other salvage and antiques stores nearby.

Most of the places in this collection are ones that I know and like. I have not recommended restaurants because there are so many good ones! A couple of golf courses are listed. FYI – Your classmate Zaf Bludivich is a member of The Links at Lang Farm.

If anyone has specific places to recommend, please feel free to email them to me so they can be included. (aharvey@nowich.com)

I look forward to seeing you all in the fall!

Ann Harvey
Old Guard Reunions

Golf - two options and a link to many others.....

332 Old Stage Road, Essex Junction, VT 05451

Reservations: 802.879.3232 <https://www.essexccvt.com/>

Golf club rentals are available.

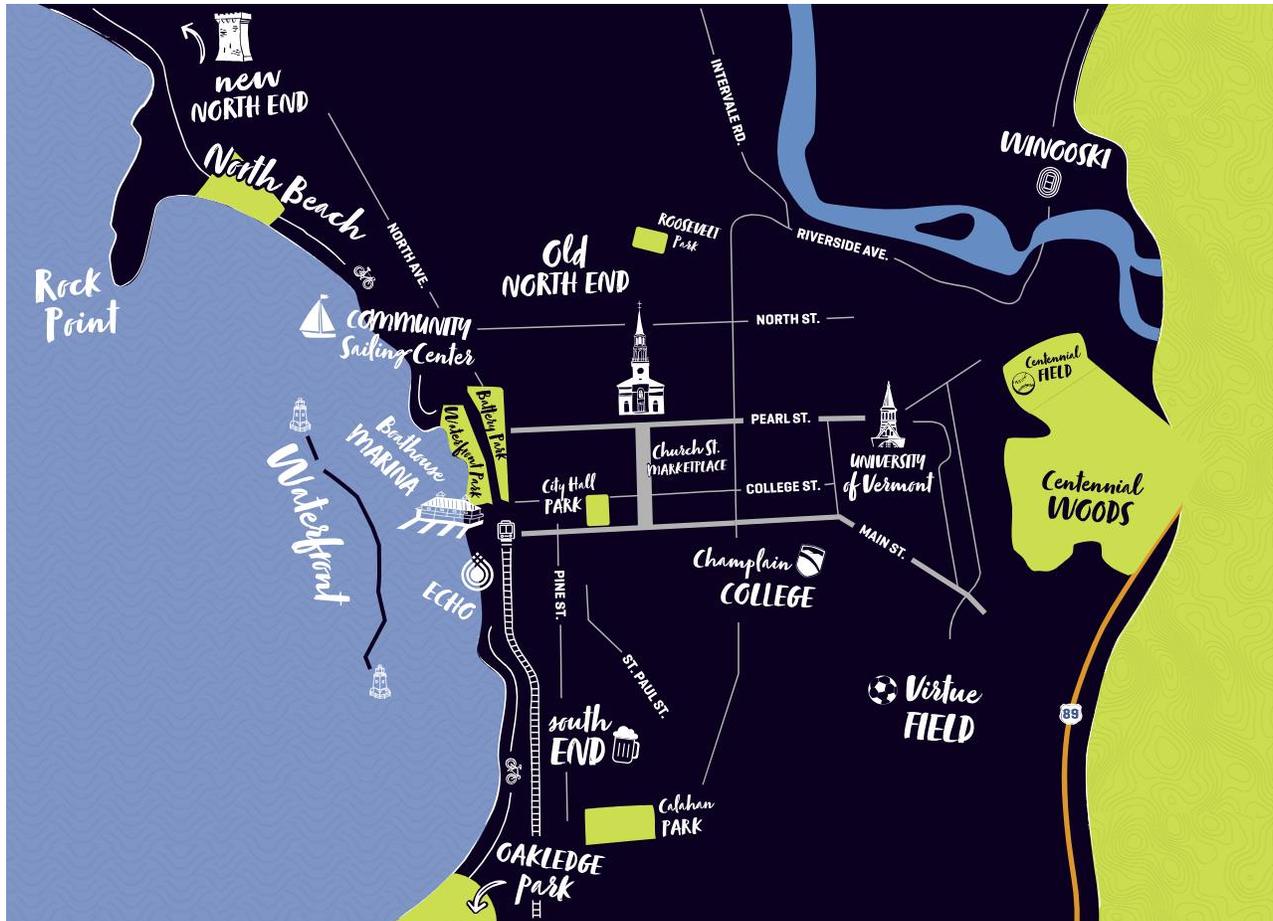

39 Essex Way – right across from the resort!

Reservation: 802-878-0298 <https://linksatlangfarm.com/>

Golf club rentals - TBA

 GolfVermont.com <https://www.golfvermont.com/>

Burlington

Church Street is Burlington's famous pedestrian walkway. It is made up of a collection of over 75 local shops, cafes, restaurants, and bakeries which all live together along the five-block brick paved street typically referenced as "downtown."

What could be nicer than a dinner cruise on Lake Champlain?

Spirit of Ethan Allen – Come Cruise With Us! \(soea.com\)

The Ethan Allen Homestead

1 Ethan Allen Homestead

Built in 1787 by Revolutionary War hero Ethan Allen, it stands as his only surviving residence in the state. Step into the past and explore this remarkable piece of history. Experience the enduring spirit of a true American legend.

36 Church Street

Want to have your Ben & Jerry's ice cream the way it was originally intended? Head to their Church Street Marketplace ice cream shop just a block from Burlington Waterfront Park. Enjoy a freshly baked waffle cone, shake or sundae with your favorite flavors.

Waterfront Park is a large regional park on the western edge of downtown along the Lake Champlain Shoreline.

1 College Street

ECHO, Leamy Center for Lake Champlain is Vermont's innovative science and nature museum on the Burlington waterfront. Family friendly, the center has interactive challenges that delight visitors of all ages. It includes an immersive 3D theater.

21 Fun Things to Do in Burlington, Vermont: Art, Food, Beer, & Seasonal Suggestions

Follow the link below to a great variety of options!

<https://heyeastcoastusa.com/things-to-do-in-burlington-vermont/>

Colchester - north of Burlington.

277 Lavigne Road

Telephone (802) 655-3400

Not just a market and bakery, Sam Mazza's 350 acre family farm is a community center, with a popular corn maze in the fall as well as hayrides and a super pumpkin patch.

<https://sammazzafarms.com/about-us/>

15 Lower Mtn View Drive

Telephone 802-655-2720

"Games, lanes, food and fun!" Spare Time features 30 luxury bowling lanes, a huge arcade packed with games, an epic laser tag arena, escape rooms, and more. They also have a full restaurant and bar.

<https://www.sparetimeentertainment.com/colchester/>

Shelburne - south of Burlington.

6000 Shelburne Road

Shelburne Museum encompasses 39 Distinct structures on 45 acres. From a blacksmith shop to a completely intact side-wheel steamboat and an operating vintage carousel to collections of duck decoys and impressive paintings, this museum is a "collection of collections." It is distinctly American and inspiring.

<https://shelburnemuseum.org/>

Shelburne Orchards

216 Orchard Road

Primarily a grower of apples, Shelburne Orchards also grows peaches, plums, sour cherries, and table grapes. They have a fantastic “pick your own” operation complete with hayrides, apple cider donuts, fresh pressed apple and ginger apple cider.

<https://www.shelburneorchards.com/>

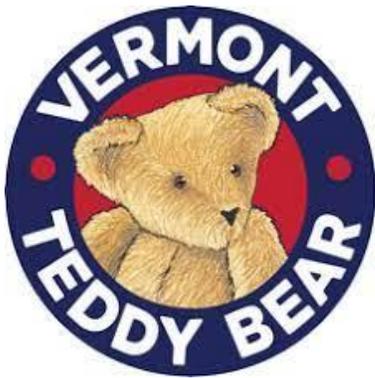

29 Falls Rd –

immediately off Route 7

This store has been in continuous operation since 1859. The 7 rooms are filled with treasures of all types – clothing, games, Christmas ornaments, home goods and 20 or more flavors of their famous fudge. It’s a great place to find the right house-warming or Christmas gift.

<https://www.shelburnecountrystore.com/>

6655 Shelburne Rd

Vermont Teddy invites you to share in a lifetime of love. Home to an extraordinary variety of Guaranteed for Life teddy bears & stuffed animals, they offer a wonderful selection of huggable companions for kids and grownups alike. The factory and store are well worth a visit.

<https://www.vermontteddybear.com/>

While coming and going on Route 7, keep your eyes peeled for antique shops, restaurants and other gems you might find. If you have the time, take a ferry to Plattsburgh, NY, explore a back road, or make a circular trip to Stowe over Mt. Mansfield. Feel free to ask Ann, Dewey or anyone on the NU staff for recommendations.